

Focus

Alborosie

Watch out, watch out, watch out, yeah
Watch out, watch out, watch out, Albo' say

Focus on the things you love to do
'Cause none a dem ain't got nothing over you
And for those who ever make you feel blue
Let them know red eye a blind them too, yes
Focus on the things you love to do
'Cause a one life, a not two
And for those who ever make you feel blue
Dem fi know you're a God child too

From you breathe and blow breath, just be thankful
Life weaker than a candle
Sometime you feel aware, mi nah wrong you
Pick up yourself and just be strong
It's by failing and just trying
You gonna find yourself climbing to the top, yeah
Don't doubt yourself and fight your battle till the end

Focus on the things you love to do
'Cause none a dem ain't got nothing over you
And for those who ever make you feel blue
Let them know red eye a blind them too, yes
Focus on the things you love to do
'Cause a one life, a not two
And for those who ever make you feel blue
Dem fi know you're a God child too

Only dreamers take life no granted
(Don't do that) Don't do that, that a wrong thing
Inna di darkest hour, shine like a lantern
(And let your faith) And let your faith be the starting
We have a place inna Zion
Keep the heart of a lion
Make yourself tall like a giant
Just listen to the High Man

Focus on the things you love to do
'Cause none a dem ain't got nothing over you
And for those who ever make you feel blue
Let them know red eye a blind them too, yes
Focus on the things you love to do
'Cause a one life, a not two
And for those who ever make you feel blue
Let them know, yeah
Focus on the things you love to do, yeah
Focus on the things you love to do

From you breathe and blow breath, just be thankful
Life weaker than a candle
Sometime you feel aware, mi nah wrong you
No, mi nah wrong you, mi nah wrong you

Focus on the things you love to do, yeah
They ain't got nothing over you
And for those who ever make you feel blue

Badmind a kill dem, kill dem
Focus on the things you love to do
'Cause a one life, a not two
And for those who ever make you feel blue
Dem fi know you're a God child too
