

Respect Yourself

Alborosie

One blood

One destiny

Respect yourself and love yourself

One blood

Respect yourself and love yourself

Come fi get bored di teaching and promote di bleaching

Show down my tips just fi get rich like Lee Jean

Violence style kicking, anything legit

Hiff and corruption ina di juice dem get looting

Triple six legit, hell is da limit

Nuff ah dem a demon and that is not secret

Dem ah different species, me feel it, I mean it

Dem kill off di youth dem for pennies I've seen it

Respect yourself and love yourself

One blood

Respect yourself and love yourself

One love

Respect yourself and love yourself

True love

Respect yourself and love yourself

Real love

Juvenile competition, jealousy and collition

To all di boys and girls I see a lack of ambition

I don't see religion, I don't see condition

Divided we fall youth make a decision

Stick to your culture and keep your traditions

Check where you going, check out your mission

Sign my petition, no more divisions

See better must come, this is just a transition

Respect yourself and love yourself

One blood

Respect yourself and love yourself

One love

Respect yourself and love yourself

True love

Respect yourself and love yourself

Real love

If you don't love yourself

No one will love you

(one destiny)

So we all should respect ourself

I see young stars keep falling, mama keep calling

From so many yesterday there is no returning

My eyes are burning, they've seen and their hurting

I see many young stars, don't make it till morning

Respect yourself and love yourself

One blood

Respect yourself and love yourself

One love
Respect yourself and love yourself
True love
Respect yourself and love yourself
Real love
