Alcatrazz

Running through gate number nine She just can't miss that flight Her gun is packed and loaded As she slips into the night Rome
, London, New York, L.A. She's all around the world One more secret lover Just another undercover girl Undercover undercover undercover Undercover undercover undercover undercover She's strange but that's alright
But then again I don't know Posing as a cover girl While she dances through the night Sees through life, waits alone Amid the sultry skies, she's got the magic touch Undercover undercover undercover When I'm undercover with you Undercover undercover undercover When I'm undercover with you Her world is calling out for heroes Behind the mask of double zeroes Undercover undercover undercover When I'm undercover with you Undercover undercover undercover When I'm undercover with you No one sees the things that we do Undercover When I'm undercover with you Undercover
