

What's the meaning? What was the purpose?
Trying so hard makes it feel worthless
High all the time on designer drugs
He was clean for a week but now he's in love
What's the meaning? Your life is so perfect
Got a nice big house and you never get nervous
Fell asleep on the floor after he scored
He woke up in a sweat, need something to snort

It's so awful, we can't even help you
I try so hard for you to put it down when I'm not around
You're helpless, you're helpless

It's so horrible, we can't even help you
I try so hard for you to put it down when I'm not around
You're helpless (You're helpless)
You're helpless (You're helpless)

Between the lines, these lies keep adding up
Heading back, knowing that he's had enough
It's so bad, can't tell what he's tripping off
Two shots or two caps of Adderall
He's a slave to love
Wish he didn't drop
Wish he didn't drop it all

It's so awful, we can't even help you
I try so hard for you to put it down when I'm not around
You're helpless (You're helpless)
You're helpless (You're helpless)
It's so horrible, we can't even help you
I try so hard for you to put it down when I'm not around
You're helpless, you're helpless
It's so horrible
Horrible
