

hate me

aldn

Born to die without you, darling
Don't be scared, I'll give no warning
And I'm not coming back this time
This time

Push me to the edge, I'm about to lose my mind
And some people want me dead, but I don't think that it's time
So I'ma make them hate me more
It's all by design
Take this as a sign

So push me to the edge and you know I'll lose my mind
If you wanna end up dead, better get your ass in line
'Cause if you're at the top of my list, you better look out behind

When this is over, I'ma fuckin' fill my brain up with lead
I said
Just keep it down, it's way too loud, can't hear the thoughts in my head
I said
Nobody's gonna find my body, it's as cold as the ground
Oh no
And I'm not sorry that I fantasize when you're not around

'Cause I'm born to die without you darling
I'm not scared so stop your crying
'Cause I won't wait around much longer
Oh no

So push me to the edge and you know I'll lose my mind
You don't wanna see me dead then you better get inside
'Cause I'm standing at the top of this bridge and I think I can fly

When this is over, I'ma fuckin' fill my brain up with lead
I said
Just keep it down, it's way too loud, can't hear the thoughts in my head
I said
Nobody's gonna find my body it's as cold as the ground
Oh no
And I'm not sorry that I fantasize when you're not around

I was born to die without you, darling
I can't take you with me, sorry
'Cause I won't be around this time tomorrow
