

Does the fact that I still think about you mean something to you?
u?

Do you ever miss the house we stayed at way up in the hills?

I would drive the five a thousand times to see your eyes
Then swerve the car up off a bridge and take both of our lives

Oh, Key, where are you now?
Do you think of me when you're alone?

I should've never got the car keys to my manager's new Jeep
It was you and I, and then she's sitting way back in her seat

I would crash the Jeep again if I could be with you
The one regret that I still hold onto is meeting someone new

Oh, Key, where are you now?
Do you think of me when you're alone?
