

nothing gets u

aldn

There's nothing wrong with love [?]
She walks around as though she's never lost out her dream
And she cries, every single night
She loves to lie, and tell them she's alright

And she runs
Running for her life
It takes her little time to see that they were right
To see that they were right
The perfect alibi
You can't find out why nothing gets you high
Nothing gets you high

Did I make you cry?
I'm so fucking selfish
Like, I can't fucking do this anymore
You're such a whore
She said "[?] anymore
Get away from me" [?]

And she runs
Running for her life
It takes her little time to see that they were right
To see that they were right
The perfect alibi
You can't find out why nothing gets you high
Nothing gets you high

Nothing gets you (nothing gets you)
Nothing gets you (nothing gets you)
Nothing gets you (nothing gets you)
Nothing gets you (nothing gets you)
