Bright eyes, not a care in the world
Walking 'round high as fuck with her hair all curled
Mixing drugs all night, make her look like a fool
Oh God, what I'd give just to be that cool
I wanna be just like her, I wanna
Not give a fuck about what you heard, I need
Cheap drugs, expensive clothes
She never cared about nobody, goes wherever the wind blows

Sydney, I know you cannot see me, can't you
Give me just a moment of pity, 'cause I'm
Lonely, life is moving so slowly without
Somebody, somebody like Sydney
Somebody like Sydney
Somebody like Sydney

5'2", she got nothing to fear
I swear I've never seen that girl shed a single tear
It's been a little while since I've seen her around here
'Cause no one knows where she's at, been like over a year
I wanna be just like that, the way she Doesn't notice what they're looking at, and it's like
No one knows what goes on in her head
It could be something that you did or something you said

Sydney, I know you cannot see me, can't you
Give me just a moment of pity, 'cause I'm
Lonely, life is moving so slowly without
Somebody, somebody like Sydney
Somebody like Sydney
Somebody like Sydney
Sydney, I know you cannot see me, can't you
Give me just a moment of pity, 'cause I'm
Lonely, life is moving so slowly without
Somebody, somebody like Sydney
