Hunter

Aldous Harding

He's a hunter, he's a good man
Be brave when he brings you nothing home
He's a hunter and a good man
Be brave when he brings you nothing home

In the garden you are Adam and Eve
You don't need me
In the garden you are Adam and Eve
You don't need me

I am bleeding in the river
She knows I do not run
I am bleeding in the river
She knows I do not run

He's a hunter, he's a good man
Be brave when he brings you nothing home
He's a hunter and a good man
Be brave when he brings you nothing home

In the river he has fallen
His blood begins to run
In the river he has fallen
His blood begins to run

He's a hunter, he's a good man
Be brave when he brings you nothing home
He's a hunter and a good man
Be brave when he brings you nothing home
