

Anesthesia

Alec Benjamin

Turn the TV on when I lay in bed
Try to drown the noise pounding in my head
'Cause I can't let go of the things we said

Now when I, I've been talking in my sleep
And I ain't heard from you in weeks
I thought I had your heart for keeps

Please give me more anesthesia
You left me right when I need ya
Sometimes at night I can feel ya
Under the knife, the blinding light
And I need ya
And I, and I, and I need ya
And I, and I, and I need ya
And I, and I, and I need ya
And I need ya, anesthesia

Now it's 2 AM and I'm wide awake
And I need a fix just to numb the pain
Never felt so sick since you went away

Now when I, I've been talking in my sleep
And I ain't heard from you in weeks
I thought I had your heart for keeps

Please give me more anesthesia
You left me right when I need ya
Sometimes at night I can feel ya
Under the knife, the blinding light
And I need ya
And I, and I, and I need ya
And I, and I, and I need ya
And I, and I, and I need ya
And I need ya, anesthesia
