

Sober

Alec Benjamin

I'll wait with you until you're feeling sober
I'll pick you up, I'll put you on my shoulder
And when the night is over, lay your head down on my sofa, please
I know your heart is hurting and you need someone there to share the burden
And if the roles reversed then I know you would do the same for me, you'd do the same

I walked down to your apartment and all your stuff was on the street
Then I heard you were at the bar and that you've been drinking since 3
So I hopped into my car and I drove down just to see
If you might want to talk about it, said you can always talk to me
If you're not ready to open up then I can stay here
Until the Sun comes up and it's alright if you had too much, if you had too much

I'll wait with you until you're feeling sober
I'll pick you up, I'll put you on my shoulder
And when the night is over, lay your head down on my sofa, please
I know your heart is hurting and you need someone there to share the burden
And if the roles reversed then I know you would do the same for me, you'd do the same

Almost home, yeah you don't have to worry
'Cause you're not alone, yeah, we're almost home
No, you don't have to worry you won't be alone, 'cause

I'll wait with you until you're feeling sober
I'll pick you up, I'll put you on my shoulder
And when the night is over lay your head down on my sofa please
I know your heart is hurting and you need someone there to share the burden
And if the roles reversed then I know you would do the same for me
You'd do the same, oh oh, you'd do the same yeah

'Cause I'll wait with you until you're feeling sober
I'll pick you up, I'll put you on my shoulder
And when the night is over, lay your head down on my sofa, please
I know your heart is hurting and you need someone there to share the burden

And if the roles reversed then I know you would do the same for me
