Boston

Alec Chambers

I know you don't wanna talk much
Gettin' worked up, yeah I know you can't help it
I know you're thinkin' 'bout the long run
And what you want, you don't wanna be selfish
But the truth comes out sometimes
When you're drunk too much and you got too high
I know you don't wanna wake up
And then make up, when you really don't mean it

I hate seein' you like this
It hurts knowin' somethin's missin'

I think you should go back to Boston
And maybe go find yourself
Talk to your friends and let them help
Find what you want in someone else
I think you should go back to Boston
'Cause we know this ain't the same
We only lose when we play this game
Go back get lost in whatever you found in Boston

Got the 617 in my veins, came from nothing
So I understand you running from the pain
High hopes in the city where we wear crowns
Know the changes that you deal with got you weighed down
Made a move to L.A. that you played out
Miss the seasons. that's the reason you complain now
Fragile, but you're acting like a mobster
Mad at me and now they're getting licks over the Monster
Fenway on Landsdowne, yeah that's my home
Searching for a place you can call your own
Don't need to step on toes but you've been so down
And you're all alone so

I think you should go back to Boston
And maybe go find yourself
Talk to your friends and let them help
Find what you want in someone else
I think you should go back to Boston
'Cause we know this ain't the same
We only lose when we play this game
Go back get lost in whatever you found in Boston
Go back get lost in whatever you found in Boston

I hate seein' you like this
It hurts knowin' somethin's missin'

(Go back to Boston)
I think you should go back to Boston
And maybe go find yourself
Talk to your friends and let them help
Find what you want in someone else
 (Run and tell your friends that)
I think you should go back to Boston
'Cause we know this ain't the same
We only lose when we play this game
Go back get lost in whatever you found in Boston
