

Cold

Alec Chambers

I could still remember when
We said this would never end
Oh, it was so easy to fall in love, yeah
Sitting here at 2 AM
I can't believe we're here again
Parked outside the house where you grew up

Push me away while you pull me close
Ask me to stay but you know I won't
We're just too afraid to be alone
No, you won't let it show, woah

You drive all night searching for something
Then you realize that it's already gone
It's too late to take you home
I don't wanna fake it anymore
You know it ain't like me
You know it ain't like me
To be so cold, oh
To be so cold, oh
It's too late to take you home
I don't wanna fake it anymore
You know it ain't like me
You know it ain't like me
To be so cold
To be so cold

Give it time to get over this
Find someone with more to give
God knows how I've tried
But, now it hurts too much
Soon I know that you'll be his
Say goodbye with one last kiss
This has gone on long enough

Push me away while you pull me close
Ask me to stay but you know I won't
We're just too afraid to be alone
No, you won't let it show, woah

You drive all night searching for something
Then you realize that it's already gone
It's too late to take you home
I don't wanna fake it anymore
You know it ain't like me
You know it ain't like me
To be so cold, oh
To be so cold, oh
It's too late to take you home
I don't wanna fake it anymore
You know it ain't like me
You know it ain't like me
To be so cold
To be so cold

You just gotta let me go
Cause I don't wanna run away

Cause we've been going too far
No matter what I feel the same
You just gotta let me go
But, nothing ever seems to change
'Cause I've been getting so high
Just so I don't have to feel this pain (Yeah)

You drive all night searching for something
Then you realize that it's already gone
It's too late to take you home
I don't wanna fake it anymore
You know it ain't like me
You know it ain't like me
To be so cold, oh
To be so cold, oh
It's too late to take you home
I don't wanna fake it anymore
You know it ain't like me
You know it ain't like me
To be so cold
