Alec Chambers

I'm posted up while you're posting, mmm
Loading up while I'm loading
Tryna process what if Tryna process what done it
Fallin' out, I'm still fallin', ayy
Call me yours, then stop calling
Tryna process, fuck it
It's a process

Remember we got drunk on Tequila down in Mexico
You wrapped your arms around my body told me "Don't let go" (To ld me "Don't let go")
You said the stars were aligned just for us

And now you're just— now you're just
Somebody that I used to love
Love
Somebody I loved
Oh

I hope you live the life, uh
I hope you smile like you did when I kiss your lips goodnight
I hope you feel some type of way
I hope you're calling my name by mistake
Remember when we met your parents out in Minnesota
We talked on the train 'bout when we get older
Following dreams, they weren't big enough

And now you're just— now you're just
Somebody that I used to love
Love
Somebody I loved
And now you're just— now you're just
Somebody that I used to love
Love
Somebody I loved
And now you're just— now you're just
Somebody that I used to love
