

Serendipity

Alec Chambers

You call me in the mornin'
And you breakdown when you're lonely
'Cause you know that I'm on my way
But there's somethin' missing
And I don't want to risk it
If I tell you will you run away?

You and me, serendipity
I can't be the only one who see's it
I could be your missing piece
The thing you never knew you needed
Don't want you to stop me if I'm sayin' too much
There's got to be more to the story of us
You and me, serendipity
I can't be the only one who see's it

You can call me crazy
But I'm thinkin' that maybe
There's a reason you're in my life
Like you coward down on the table
Make your move if you're a rainbow
To see you do better, I see it through my own eyes

You and me, serendipity
I can't be the only one who see's it
I could be your missing piece
The thing you never knew you needed
Don't want you to stop me if I'm sayin' too much
There's got to be more to the story of us
You and me, serendipity
I can't be the only one who see's it

You and me (Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh, you and me)
Serendipity (Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh, serendipity)
You and me (Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh, you and me)
Serendipity (Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh, serendipity)

You and me, serendipity
I can't be the only one who see's it
I could be your missing piece
The thing you never knew you needed
Don't want you to stop me if I'm sayin' too much
There's got to be more to the story of us
You and me, serendipity
I can't be the only one who see's it

Oh-oh-oh, oh (You and me)
Oh-oh-oh, oh (Serendipity)
Oh-oh-oh, oh (You and me)
Oh-oh-oh, oh (Serendipity)
You and me, serendipity
I can't be the only one who see's it
