

Stay Awhile

Alecia Elliott

Baby take a load off, take your coat off
Stay awhile
So It's raining, no use complaining
Just stay awhile
Why be alone, make yourself at home
There's no reason to be a leavin'

I think we both realize
How this is feeling something like love
Talking 'bout love
Baby, this love don't need nothin' but time
And it's ticking, why don't you come in
Stay awhile

It's getting cold out, nowhere to go now
Stay awhile
My arms are open, you got me hoping
That you'll stay awhile

I think we both realize
How this is feeling something like love
Talking 'bout love
Baby, this love don't need nothin' but time
And it's ticking, why don't you come in
Stay awhile
