

The Hardest Day con The Corrs

Alejandro Sanz

One more day, one last look
Before I leave it all behind
And play the role that's meant for us
That said we'd say goodbye

Cuéntame, otra vez
Si no es el mismo sol de ayer
El que se esconde hoy
Para ti, para mi, para nadie más
Se ha inventado el mar

If I promise to believe, will you believe
That there's nowhere that we'd rather be Nowhere describes where we are
I've no choice, I love you
Leave, love you, wave goodbye

And all I ever wanted was to stay
And nothing in this world is gonna change, change

Never wanna wake up from this night
Never wanna leave this moment
Waiting for you, only, only you
Never gonna forget every single thing you do
When loving you is my finest hour
Leaving you, the hardest day of my life
The hardest day of my life

Déjame, que te dé
Cada segundo envuelto en un atardecer de vida
Para ti, para mi, para nadie más
Se ha inventado el mar

But I never will regret a single day
Y ninguno sabía muy bien qué hacer
What I'm feeling for you (aquella noche, noche)
I will always love you
Leave, love you, wave goodbye

(Ire, ire, ire)
And all, and all I ever wanted was to stay (este maldito atardecer)
Nothing in this world's gonna change...

Never wanna wake up from this night
Never wanna leave this moment
Waiting for you only, only you
Never gonna forget every single thing you do
When loving you is my finest hour
I never knew I'd ever feel this way
I feel for you...

Never wanna wake up, from this night
Never wanna leave this moment
Waiting for you only, only you
Never gonna forget every single thing you do
When loving you is my finest hour
Leaving you, the hardest day of my life...

Never wanna wake up from this night...
