

Till The End Of Time

ALEKSEEV

The sky's a witness, nothing left to doubt
You'll stay beside, it's written in the stars
We are like sparkles, shining in the dawn
So high, we'll never touch the ground

Hear my voice from now and till the end of time
May it sound from here and to the other side
And the wicked shadows sink into the sands
May it be the place where our love stands

Hear my voice from now and till the end of time
May it sound from here and to the other side
And the wicked shadows sink into the sands
May the love begin and evil end

One step away, I'll fall right into you
Thanks for the way that you have guided me through
They say "The happy ones ain't counting days"
I'm free, there's no time to chase

Hear my voice from now and till the end of time
May it sound from here and to the other side
And the wicked shadows sink into the sands
May it be the place where our love stands

Hear my voice from now and till the end of time
May it sound from here and to the other side
And the wicked shadows sink into the sands
May the love begin and evil end

Hear my voice from now and till the end of time
May it sound from here and to the other side
And the wicked shadows sink into the sands
May the love begin and evil end
