

All We Know

Alessia Cara

Saint Nick don't exist anymore
And Oz was just a lonely man
It's so damn hard to believe in anything, again
What scares the optimist?
But truth is I don't understand
Haven't figured out much of anything

What a strange world, strange world
Strange world

Round and round and round it goes
Heroes fall like dominoes
We try to help it but we won't
All we know is that we don't
Round and round and round we go
The chips will fall, and so it goes
And it's all out of our control
All we know is that we don't

Is this all there is?
Preachers and rocketships
I've never quite made any sense of it, yeah
Paul says, "Let it be"
But the other's said, "To test is key"
I say, "Where's the line between real and fantasy?"

In this strange world, strange world
Strange world, yeah

Round and round and round it goes
Heroes fall like dominoes
We try to help it but we won't
All we know is that we don't
Round and round and round we go
The chips will fall, and so it goes
And it's all out of our control
All we know is that we don't

All we know is that we don't
We don't, we don't
(Strange) world, strange world
Strange world

Round and round and round it goes
Heroes fall like dominoes (Yeah-yeah-yeah)
We try to help it but we won't (We won't)
All we know is that we don't (Yeah)
Round and round and round we go (We go)
The chips will fall, and so it goes (And so it goes)
And it's all out of our control
All we know is that we don't

Strange, strange
Strange world
