

Slow Motion

Alessia Cara

Dreaming 'bout you sinking into my bed
Dizzy I see stars all around my head
Lifting me up to the moon and back again
You're my lucky penny, yeah you just make sense
I like to keep my cool but you're divine
Mother Nature must've taken her time
Come on, take me away, I'll let you drive
You're water and lemon over ice

It's late but I wanna stay
A feeling I can't explain
My ego's melting away

I see everything in slow motion
(Like a movie scene)
All the heavens suddenly opened
(Hear the angels sing)
Heard you say it's me or it's no one
No one gets through to me quite like you do
So Imma bet it all on you

Now I got you I'm lighter on my feet
We flow like Badu, just two fish in the sea
I'm missing you before you even leave
Wishing there were more days in a week

It's late but I want to stay
A feeling I can't explain
My ego's melting away

I see everything in slow motion
(Like a movie scene)
All the heavens suddenly opened
(Hear the angels sing)
Heard you say it's me or it's no one
No one gets through to me quite like you do
So Imma bet it all on you
Yeah bet it all on
Bet it all on you

I wanna stay
I can't explain
Melting away

I see everything in slow motion
(Like a movie scene)
All the heavens suddenly opened
(Hear the angels sing)
Heard you say it's me or it's no one
No one gets through to me quite like you do
So Imma bet it all on you
All on
Imma bet it
Imma bet it all on

I see everything in slow motion
And all the heavens suddenly opened

Imma bet it all on you
