

The Only Thing Missing

Alessia Cara

Snowflakes fall like glitter
The sky is the perfect shade of blue
The choir sings along to some sappy Christmas songs
But the only thing missing is you

Lovers PDA-ing
Presents wrapped, all shiny and new
Candles bring the light and that cedar smell I like
But the only thing missing is you

You're making traditions with someone else
A whole new year
And I'm still here

Laughter from the kitchen
I'm drinking some coffee I brewed
Sitting by the fire, slowly getting tired
But the only thing missing is you

You're making traditions with someone else
A whole new year
And I'm still here

Dinner on the table
The people I love in one room
It's pretty hard to find something better than tonight
Still the only thing missing is you

Oh, it's pretty hard to find something better than tonight
Still the only thing missing is you
