

What's on Your Mind?

Alessia Cara

Poured out my heart last night
Wrote a song with some good lines, I
Spill my feelings on you sometimes
But at least you know
Had a one-way talk with your voicemail
Called down but you weren't there, and
Now you're back and it's not fair, whatcha doin'

You say you thought about me all along
(Say you thought about me)
But never said a thing till I was gone

How am I supposed to know what's on your mind? (Hey)
I don't have a crystal ball (Hey)
I can't see through your walls, you should know better
How am I supposed to know what's on your mind? (Hey)
I'm tired of cracking codes (Hey)
If you want me, let me know, you should know better
Better

Bottle it up like fine wine
But don't rely on the grapevine, I
Always fall for the shy guy
Who is I expecting?
So lay it all out on the table
You felt it but you never said so
Even Juliet and Romeo couldn't outsmart communication

If you don't wanna talk that's fine by me (Fine by me)
But don't get mad when I get up and leave

How am I supposed to know what's on your mind? (Hey)
I don't have a crystal ball (Hey)
I can't see through your walls, you should know better
How am I supposed to know what's on your mind? (Hey)
I'm tired of cracking codes (Hey)
If you want me, let me know, you should know better
Better

Speak now or forever hold your tongue
You shoulda know better
You shoulda know better
Speak now or forever hold your tongue
You shoulda know better
You shoulda know better

How am I supposed to know what's on your mind? (Hey)
I don't have a crystal ball (Hey)
Can't see through your walls, you should know better
How am I supposed to know what's on your mind? (Hey)
I'm tired of cracking codes (Hey)
If you want me, let me know, you should know better
(Know, know, know, know)
Better

You shoulda know better
You shoulda know better

Speak now or forever hold
You shoulda know better
You shoulda know better
