

Here I lay so long a-dreaming
Stiffened body slow of mind
Feel the rage of burning anger
Fueled by vengeance deep inside
The hills of many unseen dangers
Look towards the mountains high
Call lives there in many guises
Darkness frost I shan't go

The soul of Hell
Came from the skies
And took away my house and home
The hatred burned into my mind
It is what makes me onward go
Many our ships been torn by fate
You will not hide on sea nor land
I come to you, Ancient Evil
Soon we make our final stand

Now we ride to meet our destiny
For this journey is another final voyage
Draping in, the time has come for slaughter
For Valhalla now we ride!
Now we ride to meet our destiny
For this journey is another final voyage
Draping in, the time has come to slaughter
For Valhalla will await us all!
