

Return to Tortuga

Alestorm

Yar ha ha har!
You wanna know where you are, laddie?
Alright then, let me tell you...

Palm trees sway in the Caribbean breeze
The hot sun beating down
A wanted man with a price on my head
On the run from the British crown
Last week in Port Royal
I stole a ship and killed the crew
I set sail on a moonlit sky
I knew just what I had to do

It's time to spin the wheel
We can go anywhere we feel
We're heading west, to the land that's the best
And I ain't ever coming back

Tortuga
Tortuga
Far across the waves
We've sailed for many days
Tortuga
Tortuga
Welcome to the sea
If you're gonna drink rum
Then you better drink rum with me

Welcome to the sea
Welcome to the sea
Captain Yarrface here to tell you how it's going to be
POW! POW! Firing my treasure gun
The Royal Navy's got you on the run
It's time to dig for treasure
It's time to quest forever

Sail across the oceans blue
There's a land that waits for you
Where the alcohol will flow forever
To the land of endless rum
In the Caribbean sun
It's the place where we must go

Tortuga
Tortuga
Far across the waves
We've sailed for many days
Tortuga
Tortuga
Welcome to the sea
If you're gonna drink rum
Then you better drink rum with me

Across the sea, across the sand
I've set my sights on a far off land
I've set my sights on a far off land!

Tortuga
Tortuga
Far across the waves
We've sailed for many days
Tortuga
Tortuga
Welcome to the sea
Then you better drink rum in
Tortuga
Tortuga
Far across the waves
We've sailed for many days
Tortuga
Tortuga
Welcome to the sea
