

Delicate Dance

Alex Aiono

You take my breath, we sway right left
And I lose my head for just a sec
We come back down, one spin around
And I'm yours again, it's dangerous, but innocent

And don't forget I just got out of something
But I know this feeling's real
So I'm scared to let you out my hands

It's a delicate dance
It's a delicate dance
It's a delicate dance
Being friends when the feeling's won't end

We feed the flame, each tempo change
And no label stays, it oscillates
I can't let it go, this rhythmic flow
It makes my heart race, it's beautiful, but heavy paced

And I need it, babe, it's all so real around you
But I've spent no time alone
Am I just scared to take a chance?

It's a delicate dance
It's a delicate dance
It's a delicate dance
Oh, being friends when the feeling's won't end
Yeah, it's a delicate dance
It's a delicate dance
Oh, it's a delicate dance
Being friends when the feeling's won't end
When this feeling's won't-, uh
Oh, these feelings won't end

Oh, oh, these feelings won't end
It's a delicate dance
Oh, being friends when these feelings won't end
Oh-oh

'Cause you take my breath
We sway right left
And I lose my head
