

Good Morning

Alex Aiono

Last night was shit
My phone was dark
The world's a mess
That's just the start
But I slept alright
I guess it's good morning

Phone call from Mom, Dad lost his job
Text from my ex, she's movin' on
But we're all alive, it must be good morning

Nightmares and mistakes
Swim around in this bed that I made
No, the past doesn't change
But we're pushin' past it today

So, get up!
Make some coffee, make some love
Take a shower, do whatever
Just get up!
'Cause the sun ain't gonna stop
If you're ready, if you're not
Just get up!
Today is all we got
Tomorrow might not come
So, get up! Get up!
Good morning

Throw on a shirt, the same old jeans
I swear my Vans, they're never clean
But I'm feelin' new, 'cause it's a good morning

Look, it might be the day, where nothing's right
Might be the day that changes my whole life
You never know, they both start with good morning

Nightmares and mistakes
Swim around in this bed that I made
I know the past doesn't change
But we're pushin' past it today

So, get up!
Make some coffee, make some love
Take a shower, do whatever
Just get up!
'Cause the sun ain't gonna stop
If you're ready, if you're not
Just get up!
Today is all we got
Tomorrow might not come
So, get up
So, get up
Good morning

So, get up!
And wash all your fears away
'Cause we got a world to change

You know a drop could start a wave
It's never too late

See the beauty in simple things
All the hope that a sunrise brings
You can see it in everything
If you just get up

Make some coffee, make some love
Take a shower, do whatever
Just get up!
'Cause the sun ain't gonna stop
If you're ready, if you're not
Just get up!
Today is all we got
So, get up! So, get up!
Good morning

Get up!
Make some coffee, make some love
Take a shower, go and run
Do whatever, just get up!
'Cause the sun ain't gonna stop
If you're ready, if you're not
Just get up!
Today is all we got
Tomorrow, it might not come
So, get up! Get up!
Good morning

So, get up!
Good morning
So, get up
Good morning
