

Happy Ending

Alex Aiono

Chasing perfect adjacent
Stressin, smokin, and drankin
I started hating the mirror
Until I hated the hatred

I was praying for patience
Playing jenga with Satan
That's like building a mansion
On a faulty foundation

I crawled through hell
I fell from grace
I strayed from center

I lost myself
Just to find my way
To something better

This is my happy ending
Let all the credits roll
Thank mom, thank dad, thank Jesus
Now pass that Holy Ghost

Angels & demons with me
They all just had a toast
Here's to our piece of heaven
This is my Happy Ending

This is the Happy Ending
This is the Happy Ending

It's a sunny ass day outside
My ex chilling with my bae outside
All my skeletons hopped out the closet
And they dancing with my sisters to the cha cha slide

A couple blessing might've came in late
But God knows they came right on time
And we ain't perfect but we A okay
And if you try and kill the vibe, we gon fight on sight

Cause we crawled through hell
Fell from grace
Strayed from center

Lost ourselves
Just to find our way
To something better

This is my happy ending
Let all the credits roll
Thank mom, thank dad, thank Jesus

Angels & demons with me
They all just had a toast
Here's to our piece of heaven

This is my Happy Ending

I got a happy ending in me
I got a happy ending

I got a happy ending in me

This is my Happy Ending
