

Saving

Alex Aiono

Yeah

I knew the night we spent out tracing the stars
That's where it began
You asked me what I meant when I said that sometimes
You're a little intense
Maybe we'll, maybe we'll never know
But baby, this, well, maybe it's inevitable
Pretend until the day we're more than just friends
And the benefits weigh

I'm right on the edge, I'm waiting, I can taste it
I've been saving up for you
All this patience, please don't waste it
I've been saving up for you
I've been saving, I've been saving
I've been saving up for you

We walked the finest line and tried to resist
But we're losing the fight
My tongue is hard to bite when you say the wrong thing
At the right time of night
Maybe it, oh, maybe it was a Freudian slip
But baby, oh, baby, I've been praying for it
Don't know how hard I fell, but I love you so much
I started loving myself

I'm right on the edge, I'm waiting, I can taste it
I've been saving up for you
All this patience, please don't waste it
I've been saving up for you
I've been saving, I've been saving
I've been saving up for you
I've been saving, I've been saving
I've been saving up for you

I'm out on the edge, I'm waiting
I can taste it, I've been saving up
All this patience, please don't waste it
I've been saving, I've been saving
