Worked Up

Alex Aiono

I've done a real real real good job
Getting over you
Some things suck
But so did you
It's all love
I was human too
It's all love
But la la last I checked
I checked I was not enough
Few weeks back it was only us
Who says that before giving up
Who says that

To someone who loved you the hardest
And held you through the hard shit
But the moment that I question
I get left in the darkness
And it's my bed but you made it
And you layed there til it faded
Now I'm on the floor
And I've lost it all
Girl you left me stuck

And now I'm getting myself worked up
Getting myself worked
I'm getting myself worked up
Getting myself worked
I'm getting myself worked up
Forgetting my self worth
I'm getting myself worked up
Getting myself

I've been real real real fucked up
Tryna understand
I won't let go
Yeah that's what you said
I didn't know there's an asterisk
No I didn't know
That you you you made plans
Made plans not involving us
I guess it's not what you thought it was
It's the little things that ain't adding up
No it's not adding up

Cuz I loved you the hardest
And held you through the hard shit
But the moment that I question
I get left in the dust

And now I'm getting myself worked up
Getting myself worked
I'm getting myself worked up
I'm getting myself worked
I'm getting myself worked up and
Forgetting myself worth, I'm forgetting
I'm getting myself worked up
I'm getting myself worked

Cuz I loved you the hardest
And I held you through the hard shit
But the moment that I question
And it's my bed but you made it
And you layed there til it faded
Now I'm on the floor
And I've lost it all

And now I'm getting myself worked
I'm getting myself worked
I'm getting myself worked up
I'm getting myself worked, oh no no
I'm getting myself worked up
Forgetting myself worth, I keep forgetting
I'm getting myself worked up
Getting myself worked
Getting myself worked up
