

Maze

Alex Clare

There's part of me you don't know
That's lost and out of control
Oh I try to tame the beast in me
So sick of blaming myself
Spending days upon the shelf
Oh you told me it's not me
It's just my personality

Well I know it's a maze to understand you
Could be days or months 'fore a breakthrough
Well I know it's a maze to understand you
Could be days or months 'fore a breakthrough

Said don't let go
Said don't let go
Stand up, look up, can't help myself from falling
Said don't let go
Said don't let go
Stand up, look up, can't help myself from falling down

Feelings that I've never felt
'Cause love is one big carousel
While I try to find the peace in me
And I can't get out of bed now
Try to get ahead than burn out
This feels like a race to me
We've lost our creativity

Yeah you said I shouldn't worry but that's painful
I've never seen you but tonight I'm still grateful
I know it's a maze to understand you
It could be days, could be months 'fore a breakthrough
'Fore a breakthrough

Said don't let go
Said don't let go
Stand up, look up, can't help myself from falling
Said don't let go
Said don't let go
Stand up, look up, can't help myself from falling down
From falling down
Can't help myself from falling down
From falling down
Can't help myself from falling down
From falling down
Can't help myself from falling
