

Unstoppable

Alex Clare

Take me away
Take me far away from this place
I just wanna see better days where
Where I can run

I would walk shadows all night long
Forget about what I'm running from
It all starts with one step

So I'll keep climbing
As long as
As long as the sun keeps rising
I promise

That I will never lose my faith
Even if I lose my way
Oh I know these bones won't break no
Unstoppable

No don't look down
Get to the horizon somehow
Ain't no chain that could hold me down, yeah
So I will run

I would walk shadows all night long
Forget about what I'm running from
It all starts with one step

So I'll keep climbing
As long as
As long as the sun keeps rising
I promise

That I will never lose my faith
Even if I lose my way
Oh I know these bones won't break no
Unstoppable

No don't look down
Get to the horizon somehow
Ain't no chain that could hold me down now - so I will run
