

Go! (Catsong)

Alex Day

If you could see yourself right now
Would it slow you down
You're on a path of self-destruction
Everyone can see it, but you push
You push people around
It's getting out of hand
If you don't try to change, I'll have to hide myself away

So go
Stop wasting time on me
I've given up on you, why won't you give up on me too
Go
Stop acting like you care
I know you won't be there when I need you
And I don't need you, no

The world
The world is at your feet
There's so much you could be
But you just take from other people
Spend all your time fighting with the ones
The ones who keep you safe
I haven't got the patience
If you keep seeing victory you'll never find your peace

So go
Stop wasting time on me
I've given up on you, why won't you give up on me too
Go
Stop acting like you care
I know you won't be there when I need you
And I don't need you, no

And every lyric in the world won't mean a thing
Cos you
You'll never understand me
You'll never understand me

So go
Stop wasting time on me
I've given up on you, why won't you give up on me too
Go
Stop acting like you care
I know you won't be there when I need you
And I don't need you, no

Need you no
Need you no
