

Older Now

Alex Day

I'm getting older now
I like to go slower now
Maybe my best days are behind me
But I know the past will not define me
A few shades of gray on the sides
They make me feel dignified
My belly is round
My shoulders heavy
But unstable ground's
Where I feel steady

I don't know where I'm going, but I'll find my way
I don't know how I got here, but I like it okay
If my time was wasted
At least I saw so many interesting places
I can't wait to see what the next place is

Who knows what the future holds
We'll see how the path unfolds
The journey has been so unexpected
So I'll move along and count my blessings

On the road that is meant for me
My mum would say "meant to be"
Well I've no idea how long I'll go for
But I'll be at peace when this is over

I don't know where I'm going but I'll find my way
I don't know how I got here, and I like it okay
And if my time was wasted
At least I saw so many interesting places
I can't wait to see what the next place is

I don't know where I'm going but I'll find my way
I don't know how I got here, and I like it okay
And if my time was wasted
At least I saw so many interesting places
And I can't wait to see what the next place is
