

Chasing Hope

Alex G

I don't quite belong
Not quite, is that so wrong?
Been feeling alone
Been feeling alone, my God
I'm wondering why I bother to try
To prove them wrong

I've been walking along
Been walking a long long way
I bet I could run
I bet I could run them wrong
My life is a light my feet are a fight
To overcome

So I'll climb up the highest mountain
So I will know
That I'm not what they thought they wanted
I'm so much more
One step at a time
I'm chasing hope

I keep hearing them talk
Keep hearing them mock my name
But I think it's a song
I'm hearing a melody
It's singing me on, it's saying to run
For all you love

So I'll climb up the highest mountain
So I will know
That I'm not what they thought they wanted
I'm so much more
One step at a time
I'm chasing hope

And my lungs are working harder
And this road is getting longer
But my God, how wonderful it is to breathe

So I'll climb up the highest mountain
So I will know
That I'm not what they thought they wanted
I'm so much more
One step at a time
I'm chasing hope
