Looking Up

Alex G

I was looking at a photograph of you
Never thought I'd ever have this point of view

Every night I spent crying 'cause of you
Stop pretending like you're the one with bruises

Who's begging now?
Every word that ever falls from your mouth doesn't matter
'Cause I've been looking up, I've been looking up
I should feel bad looking at you but
I'm done with that, doesn't matter
'Cause I've been looking up, I've been looking up
Baby

I was listening a story [?] made
Got me wondering if you have really changed, no

I'm not really sure of what you're tryna prove
Hanging out with you's the last thing I would do

And who's begging now?
Every word that ever falls from your mouth doesn't matter
'Cause I've been looking up, I've been looking up
I should feel bad looking at you but
I'm done with that, feeling better
'Cause I've been looking up, I've been looking up
Baby

I've been looking, I've been looking up
I've been looking, I've been looking up
I've been looking, I've been looking up, baby
I've been looking, I've been looking up

I've been looking up, baby
I've been looking up, baby
