

New

Alex G

In the curve of a neck
Is a pillow for my head
In the beat in your chest
Is the rhythm of the best

In your trace in my back
Oh, I love when you do that
Every touch like a cure
Am I selfish, wanting more?

I'm feeling something new, new, darling
Over you, you, girl
I'm the rising for your breathing
Yeah, we're one like air and earth

And you're taking my hand, but it never was the plan
Lot of trust, only friends
But I don't want this to end
So I lay in your clothes
Wonder if you feel the glow
Of the spark, like a moth
Telling us to fall in love

I'm feeling something new, new, darling
Over you, you, girl
I'm the rising for your breathing
Yeah, we're one like air and earth

I don't ever wanna go too far
And lose what we have
But I'm following the beat of my heart
And reaching for your hand

I'm feeling something new, new, darling
With you, you, girl
I'm the rising for your breathing
We won't like air and earth
