

Rhyme Reason

Alex G

Good
You are good
You are everything we should be
You are warm
You're the warmth I need to heal me
You are love
Love as powerful as meaning

Fear
I am fear
I am fear that needs some needing
I am broke, I am broke and need rebuilding
I am lost
You're my compass in the seeking

And I have seen the dark
I have faced the demons
You are still my rhyme
You are still my reason
You're something to believe in

Safe
You are safe
In a world I can't depend on
You are home
You are home where I am welcome
In your arms
I am braver than I ever was

In your eyes, in your eyes
I have found my home
In your heart, in your heart
I have found my love
