

Ross & Rachel

Alex Isley

Too many tears too many days gone by
Too many nights when I'd ask myself why
How nice it would be if the words were already there
We'd know just what to say when time is no longer there
Ooh, Bright, Kaufman & Crane, they made an easy get away
Easy to escape
Too bad, I can't stay
I come back to face another day it almost goes our way

Nobody's perfect (no)
Nobody's perfect (I)
Know that we're worth every (try)
They make me wonder, yeah
They make me wonder (bout) that kind of love in real life (life)

Look at em love, look at em love
Look at em love, why can't we love (just like)
Look at em love, look at em love
Look at em love, why can't we love (just like them)

I don't wanna seem like all I do is complain
Yes, I'm grateful, no I'd never love in vain
Don't you look at them and think, if they did it day to day
Don't matter where they go, it would come back to the same place

Ooh, Bright, Kaufman and Crane
They made a easy get away, easy to escape
Oh, too bad I can't stay
I come back to face another day
We almost get our way

Nobody's perfect (no)
Nobody's perfect (I)
Know that we're worth every try (try)
They make me wonder (yeah)
They make me wonder bout
That kind of love in real life (life)

Look at em love, look at em love
Look at em love, look at em love
Look at em love, why can't we love
(Just like them)
Look at em love, look at em love
Look at em love, why can't we love (just like them)

I want to know, I want to know
Just wanna be like my fantasy
How this will go, how we will go
Just wanna be yeah, just wanna be yeah

Nobody's perfect (no)
Nobody's perfect (I)
Know that we're worth every try (try)
They make me wonder (yeah)
They make me wonder bout
That kind of love in real life

Look at em love
Look at em love
Look at em love
Why can't we love (just like them)
Look at em love
Look at em love
Why can't we love (just like them)
