

Thank You For A Lovely Time

Alex Isley

I know the game
You know the answer
You were my flame
The son of a cancer
And I can't explain
But it's something similar to shame
'Cause I don't really know what it's like to be loved by you

Why do I keep wanting what doesn't want me?
Why do I love you hardly when you hardly see me?
Left to learn to help me up from coming down
Medicine's inedible this time around

Thank you for a lovely time
Thank you for a lovely time
Thank you for a lovely time
Thank you for a lovely time

Something inside of me wants to let it go on Something inside of me wants to see
Something inside me wanna be loyal to you
When you ain't promised nothing to me

So maybe it's silly me from the get-go
To get got from what I was told
Guess that's the small price that I pay back
Just wanting a damn hand to hold

Why do I keep wanting what doesn't want me?
Damn
Why do I love you hardly when you hardly see me?
Hmm, left to learn to help me up from coming down
Medicine's inedible this time around

Thank you for a lovely time
Thank you for a lovely time
Ooh-oh-oh
Thank you for a lovely time
So lovely, so lovely
Thank you for a lovely time

Why do I keep wanting what doesn't want me?
