

Think Of Me

Alex Isley

I know you're older
Went on with your life
I follow wind, I'm with my own

But I, I'm back again, I
Got my second wind
Running to where you are has left enough

In the meantime
Will you think of me?
Will you think of me?

If it's alright
Will you think of me?
Will you think of me?

Attain my dreams
It's harder than it seems
I don't know the art of letting go

Somehow I'm in between
Back to seventeen
I just need to know if I'm alone

In the meantime
Will you think of me?
Will you think of me?

If it's alright
Will you think of me?
Will you think of me?

Promise me
Promise me
Promise me
Will you think of me?
I wish you could promise me
Promise me
Promise me
Will you think of me?

In the meantime
Will you think of me?
Will you think of me?

If it's alright
Will you think of me?
Will you think of me?

Promise, baby
Will you think of me?
If it's alright
