

Know My Value

Alex Jean

It's that life I'm never living again
Say it one more time, I just can't see you again
Yeah, I promise you, I'm never feening again
Gotta look to God, so I can see 'til the end
And I know you talking to people but they won't get it
Sometimes, you need to be alone to find yo' distance
That's when you go and talk to God to find yo' vision
Yeah, I don't need yo' love so I can fit in

You said that you needed me, just 'cause you needed love
I told you, "I ain't for free, just 'cause you ain't enough"
I know you ain't for me, so I just gave it up
You know that I'm with the King, so I can't give it up

If you told me I could have anything that I want, I probably wouldn't I know I shouldn't
If it ain't for God, it ain't for this, it ain't for that I probably wouldn't, I probably shouldn't
Said you couldn't fight off all the alcohol and weed, I know you coul dn't
I know you should've
Addicted to your flesh, you fallin' every other week, I know you coul d've
I know you could've

You said that you needed me, just 'cause you needed love
I told you, "I ain't for free, just 'cause you ain't enough"
I know you ain't for me, so I just gave it up
You know that I'm with the King, so I can't give it up

It's that life I'm never living again
Say it one more time, I just can't see you again
Yeah, I promise you, I'm never feening again
Gotta look to God, so I can see 'til the end
And I know you talking to people but they won't get it
Sometimes, you need to be alone to find yo' distance
That's when you go and talk to God to find yo' vision
Yeah, I don't need yo' love so I can fit in Yeah, if you don't want me, I ain't offended
Yeah, I don't need yo' love if you ain't with it
Please, stop acting fake if you don't want me in yo' presence
Yeah, I know what I'm worth 'cause Jesus said it

You said that you needed me, just 'cause you needed love
I told you, "I ain't for free, just 'cause you ain't enough"
I know you ain't for me, yeah
You know that I'm with the King, don't give it up
You said that you needed me, just 'cause you needed love
I told you, "I ain't for free, just 'cause you ain't enough"
I know you ain't for me, so I just gave it up
You know that I'm with the King, so I can't give it up
