

Life Has Changed

Alex Jean

My whole life has changed
I go back then, I go back then
You were that special one
I'm so in love, I need to know you

My whole life has changed
Ever since you came in, I know you waited
Said that you were still the perfect one
I know you tied it up, lemme get fired up, huh
I got the drip like it's Dolce and Gabbana, huh
Look at me different (designer)
Talking and talking and I don't need a tattoo
Looking for God 'cause I'm looking for that
You looking for bread and I'm looking to prosper, huh
Ain't it a shocker
I'm looking to winning I'm looking to conquer
Yeah, I'm living my faith and it's making me stronger

I don't need drip they know that I got it like
Huh
Looking at me different designer
I'm in the phone, talking to God
I ain't living alone
I know that you got it
Put on my dome
Getting me back in the zone
How can I be tripping I'm Prada
Heaven on earth with the Father
I don't need Dolce and Gabbana

He said what you think about love
God got you need
Go to the King and get what you want
Supply all your needs
He know you need His son to take all your flaws
So you can find your peace
Jesus is the one that you always gonna need so that you can feel free

My whole life has changed
Ever since you came in, I know you waited
Said that you were still the perfect one

I don't gotta slack cause I know that I'm different
Walking with God I'm fulfilling the mission
They don't want me I ain't wasting a minute
Everyday changing the way that I'm living
Jesus, I see that you putting me up
You changing my mind and it's all in my thoughts

Like when I pray, it's like we're on the phone
You give me vision when I needed it the most
I ain't tripping off Dolce and Gabbana
I just look to the heavenly Father
When I'm praying, I'm calling him papa
I ain't worried bout counting them commas
I ain't tripping me cause that's a costing
I be spitting that heat like it's lava
We be in it like Bonnie and Clyde
I'ma sing on the beat like Madonna
God I know is You and me
And we passing over
I don't have to make a scene when I'm with the one
Devil trying to take the scene
For he never notice that you're all I've ever needed, huh

What you think bout love
God got you need
Go to the King and get what you want
Supply all your needs
