Alex Jean

Said you wanted me
But I'm stuck in my mind
I know that I'd win if I give you the whole me
I know that I gotta step outside
God, imma give you my whole life
Now I understand just how you really see me
Said that I been strong
And this worry I ain't leaving
I'm just so glad that you showed me my life

And I feel like I'll never stop, to be honest
I got this thing
I got that flow
I can't be toxic
I know that you went and gave your promise
You went and brought me through so much pain
So much hate
So much change
God, I know that I'm strong
And I really got it
I used to think I'd never make it today

God, I'm really tryna be real
Wanna fix the way I think
And just how I feel
I really need a mind like yours
With your ideas
Change what I believe
And it's gon' change the way I live
It was way too hard
For me to find the way I feel
I know it took time
For me to change the way I live
I went through so much pain
I thought I'd never really heal it
Now I know that you want me
And I'm here now, yeah
It's not 'bout you and me
Won't let my mind try to take me from what I believe
I swear I'm done with all that fear
And that anxiety
Jesus made a man
Now I know just why he testing me
Show me who I am
[?] just how he blessing me
Can't bring no religion
Yeah lil dawg, it ain't oppressing me
Bring me to your kingdom
Down to earth
We tryna make heavenly
Holy Spirit, can you open my mind with it?
I know that it's deep
And it's gon' really take time
You won't ever leave
I know that you won't lie (huh)
I know you want it
I give it, often

I know you want me
I know you love me

If you tell me something
I won't keep on running
I want the evidence of really something
I want to be the truth
And everything, I know you want it
I know I'm everything you wanted

And I feel like I'll never stop, to be honest
I know that you went and gave your promise
You went and brought me through so much pain
So much hate
God, I know that I'm strong
