

Right Over Wrong

Alex Jean

I was losin' the fight in my head
Had me thinkin' I had nun left
Really feelin' I'm just a mess
Don't believe all the things they said
And you see all the pain they bring
They was wrong
And I'm mad that I gave you a thought
'Cause you know you was wrong
And I'm lookin' at God and I see that He still on the throne
He told me the reason I'm livin'
I know that I'm gifted, I know that I'm on Huhn, and I'm keepin' the vision strong
Hail to my dawgs
Huhn, and you can't tell me nun
I get to

I'm feelin' good and I'm feelin' great
And I'm feelin' blessed, I really needed some rest
I'm beatin' my chest, I know that He wanted my best
I'm givin' God all of my time and all of my mind
I know that He wanted me here
Okay, you still need someone

Let's stay here, just a little longer
Let's stay here, just a little longer
Easier said than done (Y'know what I'm talkin' 'bout, like)
Just say you will be with me just a while (You goin' through things and you didn't know what was gon' help, for real)
(You kind of alone, for real)

You see my heart was cold, just like December (Oh-oh)
And I needed somebody to just give me wisdom
And I found truth and I found that pressure in that river
Yeah, I know it's Him, there ain't no guessin', I won't give up
I was my biggest critic, didn't know how to love
I kept judgin' the way I was feelin'
I couldn't help feelin' different
Had a void in my heart and I struggled to fill it
I felt alone, unappreciated to the bone
Insecure, down to the soul
Took my value, pushed it through the floor
Jesus showed the truth behind my scars
Had to rediscover who you are
People always see you for the scars
But now, you really shootin' to the stars
Holy Spirit opened up the door
It's okay for me to be alone
Put that livin' water in my soul
'Cause I don't need no one to make me whole (Yeah, yeah)

You ain't tellin' me to switch up the flow
I been talkin' to God and I know what He wanted
I'm so tired of fightin' my mind and I swear that
I'm keepin' my promise
And I feel too good, I fight back
And I know that they really don't like that
Yeah, I swear, I'ma get my life back

I'ma live for God, just like that
I'm afraid of my own strength
But I know with God, I'm like that
I was blind to all my sin
But with God, I got my sight back

I'm feelin' good and I'm feelin' great
And I'm feelin' blessed, I really needed some rest
I'm beatin' my chest, I know that He wanted my best
I'm givin' God all of my time and all of my mind
I know that He wanted me here
Okay, you still need someone
I'm feelin' good and I'm feelin' great
And I'm feelin' blessed, I really needed some rest
I'm beatin' my chest, I know that He wanted my best
I'm givin' God all of my time and all of my mind
I know that He wanted me here
Okay, you still need someone
