

Black RMs

Alex Lahey

I can't wait to have you back again
From your cowlick to your black RMs
You're the only one for me
You say you're normal, but you're one of a kind
When I think about my future, I've got you in mind
You're the only one for me

I cross my heart
'Cause I won't ever stray
You've got me wrapped around your finger
And then back again
You deserve
To know the way I feel
When I watch you use your thighs
To turn the steering wheel

You're the only one for me

Your early starts and your little quirks
I leave haikus on your bed for when you're home from work
You're the only one for me

You say days are long
And mostly they are
I'll miss you 'til I see you
And that won't be far
You deserve
To know the way I feel
When you lick your finger
Before you peruse the menu

You're the only one for me

You make me laugh, we can talk all night
I think it's time you got that return long haul flight
You're the only one for me

I need your sleepy eyes
And your singing mouth
Send me your drunk messages
When you go out
You deserve
To know the way I feel
'Cause after all these years
It turns out you're the real deal

You're the only one for me
