

Spike The Punch

Alex Lahey

I got my ass kicked, it was fantastic
Kept going back like a hopeless romantic
All of the time, make me feel alive

Talking for so long, forgot the question
Light in my eyes like an interrogation
You listened all night
Were you just being polite?

Circled by loan sharks, I'm going under
You got me out by the scruff of my collar
Weight off my shoulders
Till I build it up again

Spike the punch and get everyone sent home
So in the end, it's you and me dancing all alone
Spike the punch and disconnect the phones
'Cause it's always been you and me
And that's the only thing I've ever known

Not one for semantics, it was a classic
Kept going back, like a band of elastic
Replay and rewind
Steady decline

Not our intention but we found connection
On this side of town that nobody mentions
It was implied
That you'd spend the night

Changing the subject, we're going under
I hope it was worth it
You'll never recover
Watch it explode and then we'll build it up again

Spike the punch and get everyone sent home
So in the end, it's you and me dancing all alone
Spike the punch and disconnect the phones
'Cause it's always been you and me
And that's the only thing I've ever known

Spike the punch
Spike the punch

Spike the punch and get everyone sent home
So in the end, it's you and me dancing all alone
Spike the punch and disconnect the phones
'Cause it's always been you and me
And that's the only thing I've ever known
