

When The Rain Comes Down

Alex Lahey

I've been waking up at four o'clock for I don't know what
All these Nintendo games are haunting me around the clock
I changed my tune to move a queen around a checkered board
And all the Russian masters came to me when they got bored
It was sparking joy for me until I stopped getting paid
Now I eat instant mac and cheese from a fabergé plate

When the rain comes down
I'll be up on my cloud
When the rain comes down
It's got nothing on me

I've been talking to my cat, yeah he's a hell of a guy
He helped me troubleshoot my Tesla now it's ready to fly
And I'm watching movies with the subtitles turned all the way up
At the drive in where the engine died and I got stuck

It's a goddamn shame
That I can't save the game
I need a minute but I'm in it
I'm not leaving I'm just walking away

When the rain comes down
I'll be up on my cloud
When the rain comes down
It's got nothing on me

When the rain comes down
I'll be up on my cloud
When the rain comes down
It's got nothing on me

I'm an amateur vibeologist and do what I want
I'm gonna see it to the other side and I can't be stopped
The world's a carbon-dated simulation can't have it all
I call my stunt double, next thing you know she's scaling the walls

It's a goddamn shame
That I can't save the game
I need a minute but I'm in it
I'm not leaving I'm just walking away

When the rain comes down
I'll be up on my cloud
When the rain comes down
It's got nothing on me

When the rain comes down
I'll be up on my cloud
When the rain comes down
It's got nothing on me

It's got nothing on me
It's got nothing on me
