

Tell the people how you feel about me
Into words? Yeah
Impossible
Oh brother

I can't lie you give me everything I wanted
And I cherish every second every moment yeah
I can't wait to see you wake up every morning
These are the only arms I ever want to fall in I'll keep choosing you
I promise not to let go
I refuse the thought of losing something special yeah
Maybe I'm a little hopeless romantic but
I want to live out our future like we planned it all

So baby, please, don't change your mind
About me cause I want this feeling for all time
Don't let me go
I hope you never change your mind
About me cause I want this feeling for all time
Keep choosing me

Don't nobody know the real me only you do
Everybody don't find love only a few do
So I'm blessed I can experience unusual
And all I can do is pray the feelings mutual
And spiritual
Cause we all ready know we got the physical
Cuz we fuck like the world is ending
Cocky bruk and di pum pum tun up
So close our souls feel blended
Why would I ever wan' give it up?
(Why would I want to give it up?)

So baby, please, don't change your mind
About me cause I want this feeling for all time
Don't let me go
I hope you never change your mind
About me cause I want this feeling for all time
Keep choosing me

Ooh
I hope you never change your mind
