Problem

Alex Mali

Yeah, yeah
(The Breed made it)
Yeah

Sound like a you problem
Sound like a you problem
'Cause it ain't my problem
'Cause it ain't my problem

Ringing, ringing, ringing off my cellular
See I'm getting better while you getting worst
When's the last time we spoke on the regular? (Regular)
Now you acting all kinds of familiar
When I needed help, you looked the other way
If you made your bed there, then that's where you'll lay
You should really learn about some loyalty (Ayy)
That's the difference between me and what's his name

Sound like a you problem
Sound like a you problem
'Cause it ain't my problem
'Cause it ain't my problem
Sound like a you problem
Sound like a you problem
'Cause it ain't my problem
'Cause it ain't my problem

Asking me how could I even sleep at night?
Actually, I think I'm sleeping quite alright
I've got you to thank, you opened up my eyes
I could see who real and who living a lie
All the time I gave you was unrecognized
Now all you wan' do is try to reconcile
Baby, in my shoes, you couldn't walk a mile
Change your point of view too late, you realized

Sound like a you problem (No, it ain't mine)
Sound like a you problem
'Cause it ain't my problem (No, it ain't mine)
'Cause it ain't my problem (No, no, no)
Sound like a you problem (No, it ain't mine)
Sound like a you problem (Sound like a you problem)
'Cause it ain't my problem (No, it ain't my problem, mine)
'Cause it ain't my problem (No, it ain't, no, it ain't, no)

Haha, woo
This shit lit
Yeah
