Sensitive

Alex Porat

I don't know why, I don't know why
I'm thinking maybe I'm emotionally cursed
And I'm leaving parties 'fore I get my feelings hurt
I always thought that I was just an extravert
I guess not, I guess not

I don't know why I feel so sad
And the smallest things can always push me off the edge
While I'm freaking out, maybe that's just in my head
Wonder if I'll be this way until I'm dead
I hope not, hope not

I can't with myself
Wish that I knew how to let it go

I hate that I'm so sensitive
All the time
I can't say what's on my mind
Even though I always try
I just wanna cry

I'm so sensitive
All the time
Feelings keep me up at night
Wonder what it would be like
To not be so fuckin' sensitive

I don't know how, how to be fine
Everyone just lives their lives so easily
'Cause everyone seems stronger than I'll ever be
But I'll always want the things that just aren't meant for me
And that sucks

I hate that I'm so sensitive
All the time
I can't say what's on my mind
Even though I always try
I just wanna cry

I'm so sensitive
All the time
Feelings keep me up at night
Wonder what it would be like
To not be so fuckin' sensitive

To not be so fuckin' sensitive

I can't with myself
Wish that I knew how to let it go

I hate that I'm so sensitive
All the time
I can't say what's on my mind
Even though I always try
I just wanna cry

I'm so sensitive

All the time
Feelings keep me up at night
Wonder what it would be like
To not be so fuckin' sensitive

To not be so fuckin' sensitive
To not be so fuckin' sensitive
(To not be so fuckin')

All the time
Feelings keep me up at night
Wonder what it would be like
To not be so fuckin' sensitive
